Dear Sir:

I am writing at the request of Mr Willie Wells to send you a contract to play baseball this season with The Newark Eagles.

It will be necessary for you to sign the enclosed contract, and return it to me in the enclosed envelope. I will then have it notarized, and return it to you. At the same time I will send you the advance money you asked for.

When you receive the signed contract back from me, you will have to take it to the American Council in Habana, and he will give you permission to come and play ball, and arrange for your entrance into this country.

Please return this to me right away, so there will not be any delay. You said in your letter you wanted to come to America right away.

I am sending you this contract on the strength of the recommendation Mr Wells gave you. He recommends you very highly. I will be looking to hear from you by return mail.

Very Truly Yours
